

WELCOME

January 23, 2020
Honolulu, Hawaii

2020

Hawaii Infrastructure Funding Forum

EPA Region 9 Environmental Finance Center: EFC at Sacramento State

- One of 10 EFC's partially funded by USEPA
- Collectively referred to as the EFC Network (EFCN)
- University-based
- Provide training and resources to public and private utilities by building TMF capacity, resiliency, and sustainability

<https://efcnetwork.org>

EPA Region 9 Environmental Finance Center: EFC at Sacramento State

- Resides within the Office of Water Programs at California State University, Sacramento (OWP at Sac State)
 - Training for drinking water, wastewater, and stormwater practitioners
 - Applied research for various water resource sectors

Services

Asset Management

Stormwater Funding and Financing

Direct Technical Assistance

Grant Application Assistance

GIS Analysis

Tool and Resource Development

Training

Intent and Content for the Day

- Engage Practitioners from Various Water Sectors in Hawaii
(drinking water, wastewater, stormwater, watershed planning, etc.)
- Promote a One Water Approach and Multiple Benefit Projects
- Focus on Project Funding/Financing Opportunities
 - Describe various opportunities
 - Provide tips for successful applications
 - Obtain input on challenges and barriers
 - Brainstorm improvements

Intent and Content for Today

- Multiple Sessions:
 - 1) Welcome
 - 2) Funding Needs and Challenges in HI
 - 3) Tips for Competing Successfully for Funding and Financing
 - 4) State Funding and Financing Sources
 - 5) Federal Funding and Financing Sources
 - 6) Involving the Private Sector
 - 7) Closure and Evaluation
- Lunch Buffet (provided at 11:30 am)
- Breaks Incorporated
- Audience Discussion Encouraged!